

For Managing Diabetes More Effectively

PATIENT:

PHYSICIAN:

TESTING LABORATORY:

FlexSite Diagnostics, Inc.
 3543 SW Corporate Parkway
 Palm City, Florida 34990
 C.L.I.A. 10D0930364
 Phone: 1-877-A1C-TEST (212-8378)

A1c At Home Kit Number:
 Date blood spots drawn:
 Date tested:
 Report date:

TEST RESULT: HbA1c: _____ % REFERENCE RANGE for non-diabetics is 4.6% to 6.4%

Comment: _____

EQUATING HbA_{1c} TO AVERAGE BLOOD GLUCOSE

(Estimated value for previous 2-3 months.)

CONTROL	HbA1c	AVERAGE BLOOD GLUCOSE
An HbA1c less than 7% is considered excellent. Less than or equal to 8% is good, and if it's greater than 8% you should take action to avoid an increased risk of complications*	4%	60
	5%	90
	6%	120
	7%	150
	8%	180
	9%	210
	10%	240
	11%	270
	12%	300
	13%	330
	14%	360

Note: This chart is for illustrative purposes only and represents ranges of HbA1c scores and their respective approximate equivalents in blood sugar readings. A1c At Home results may differ from values shown.

* Adapted from National Diabetes Education Program (NDEP) standards.

IMPORTANT FACTS ABOUT A1c AT HOME™

- A1c At Home™ was cleared by the Food and Drug Administration for at home use in 1997 (#K971919).
- A1c At Home™ Laboratory performs its analyses on highly precise and automated clinical analyzers from Roche Diagnostics which are Certified by the National Glycohemoglobin Standardization Program (NGSP; <http://www.missouri.edu/-diabetes/ngsp.html>).
- A1c At Home™ Clinical Testing Laboratory is regulated under Federal guidelines established by the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Act (CLIA). Additionally, it is licensed in the States of New York, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and Florida.

CONFIDENTIALITY: FlexSite Diagnostics will release the test results confidentially only to the patient and approved healthcare professional(s).